

On Thursday, September 18, 2008, I met with a group of students from Joseph Sears School in Kenilworth, IL. As part of their eighth grade trip, they traveled to Washington D.C. to learn about our nation's capitol. The students and I went to the US Capitol steps for a group photograph. After the photo, we sat on the lawn of the Capitol while I spoke with them regarding some of the current issues facing our nation today. I am particularly proud of this group because in 1973, I was part of this trip!
